

Nakisa Announces Global Integration Partnership with ROC Group

Nakisa and ROC join forces to deliver seamlessly integrated talent visualization solutions

Montreal, QC, Canada – June 9th 2009 – Nakisa® Inc., the pioneer provider of truly-integrated talent and organization management solutions for SAP®, today announced it has added ROC to its ecosystem of solution integration partners. Under this agreement, ROC, a leading global SAP Human Capital Management (HCM) consultancy, will implement SAP® Talent Visualization by Nakisa (SAP TVN) worldwide.

“Our mission is to make HCM a business priority, providing clients with best practices and cutting-edge solutions that help them address the challenges of today’s economy,” said Jerry Chilvers, CEO, ROC. “Together, ROC and Nakisa empower customers to take a pro-active approach to managing and deploying their talent to ensure they are prepared with a well-qualified workforce. Our package solutions approach to implementation is unique and provides customers with a rapid and cost effective deployment.

This agreement is the result of the collaborative relationship between the two companies and the continuing demand for Nakisa’s solutions as organizations today deal with the aging workforce, globalization and effectively managing their talent through the economic crisis. ROC’s global reach combined with their depth of SAP HCM industry knowledge and best practices complement Nakisa’s innovative talent visualization solutions, helping customers enhance and extend the value of their SAP investment.

“Changing market demands are forcing companies to do more with fewer resources,” said Tak Kusano, Vice President, Global Alliances, Nakisa Inc. “By partnering with a company of ROC’s caliber in the SAP HCM space and leveraging their expanded global footprint, we are helping our clients gain clarity into their enterprise, enabling them make better decisions that positively impact the bottom line.”
